

COUNSELING TRAINING SEMINAR II

Saturday, June 6, 2009

Interested in getting better equipped for discipleship ministry in your own sphere of influence?

The Indiana Biblical Counseling Center is offering its second annual one-day seminar in effective counseling ministry.

Conducted in an interactive, small group format, this one-day seminar will provide you with practical tools you can use in your own local church or individual ministry.

Rev. Jeff Pokone, Center Director of the Indiana Biblical Counseling Center and counselor, will be the instructor for the day.

Make plans now to attend. Space is limited and the need for equipped biblical counselors is great! All attendees will receive a certificate of completion for attending this seminar.

Note: You do not need to have attended last year's seminar in order to register for Counseling Training Seminar 2.

In last year's first counseling seminar, we had over twenty people participate. They were taught several important foundational Biblical principles in discipleship counseling. In this year's counseling seminar, Rev. Pokone will teach on how to help those you counsel resolve more specific problems. The topics covered in this year's counseling training seminar will include:

- Helping People Understand Their Identity in Christ
- Helping People Resolve Specific Strongholds of Pride, Rejection, Bitterness, and Rebellion
- Counseling People who are Suffering
- Helping People to Mature Emotionally and Spiritually
